

Monday, April 13th from 4-7pm at the DRC building (1250 Market Street Room 1A)

The public open house will allow residents and property owners an opportunity to review the new preliminary flood risk maps, and speak to subject matter experts regarding possible new insurance and building requirements, as well as how to submit a letter of map change once the new maps are effective.